from the mysterious paths of inner experiences and conversions: they honour in them something quite godlike, and are afraid to speak aloud. All the rest hardly listen when they are spoken about, and think the subjects under discussion are tedium and mediocrity. We must perhaps except those who have once heard a warning note from that realm but have stopped their ears against the sound. The recollection of it makes them angry and exasperated.

231,

HUMANITY OF FRIENDSHIP AND COMRADESHIP.—" If thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right," * that feeling is the hall-mark of humanity in Intimate intercourse, and without that feeling every friendship, every band of apostles or disciples, sooner or later becomes a fraud, 232.

THE PROFOUND.—Men of profound thought appear to themselves in intercourse with others like comedians, for in order to be understood they must always simulate superficiality.

233.

FOR THE SCORNERS OF " HERD-HUMANITY."— He who regards human beings as a herd, and flies from them as fast as he can, will certainly be caught up by them and gored upon their horns.
